“Direct communication from Baptist Health Care senior leaders to employees to provide meaningful updates about our journey to excellence”

Al Stubblefield
President & CEO
Baptist Health Care

The New Year is an opportunity for each one of us to set personal and professional goals for ourselves and our families. Each year, I'm astounded and grateful for the great things we accomplish at BHC.

As we look ahead, my desire is simple: that we continue to achieve excellence at Baptist Health Care across all five pillars and that our families and friends have a happy and healthy year.

Best wishes to you for a wonderful 2012!
