CARLETTA COLLINS, M.D.

HAVING CANCER ISN'T A CHOICE.
WHO PROVIDES YOUR CARE IS.

"I chose to become an oncologist because my best friend – my grandfather – died of lung cancer when I was 11 years old. Before he died, he asked me to promise to do something to help people like him. I fulfill that promise and my calling every day as an oncologist at Baptist. A cancer diagnosis can be devastating, but it's my Mission to provide each patient with comfort, healing and hope."
